Dear Stakeholder,

Please take note that the Alberta Provincial General Election has been called. The date of the election is April 16, 2019.

As a part of our general outreach strategy, please take note of the following information; and, if possible, be prepared to share this information with your stakeholders.

Eligibility:

To be eligible to vote, you must be:

- a Canadian citizen,
- at least 18 years of age, and
- ordinarily resident in Alberta.

Additionally, in order to receive your ballot, you must be a registered elector.

Registration:

Many persons originally confirmed or updated their record during the province-wide enumeration, completed in September 2018. However, should an elector have missed this registration campaign; or, have need to re-register, they may do so by:

- Visiting www.voterlink.ab.ca, and registering online (until April 2),
- By contacting our call centre at 1-877-422-VOTE (8683), or
- By producing authorized identification and completing a
- Declaration of Elector at the poll.

Voting Options:

Registered voters choosing to attend an Election Day Poll must vote at their assigned poll. Information regarding these poll assignments will be sent to registered voters in the mail, on their "Where to Vote" card.

If registered electors are unable to attend their Election Day poll, they may instead vote at ANY advance poll in Alberta. These polls will be open Tuesday, April 9, 2019 through Saturday, April 13, 2019, at various locations across the province. To find polling locations, please visit <https://maps.elections.ab.ca> (available once locations are finalized).

In the event that an elector is unable to attend either an Election Day or Advance Poll, they may instead request a Special (mail-in) Ballot. Details about this process and the online Special Ballot Application are available at <https://specialballot.elections.ab.ca>.

Electoral Division Boundaries:

Please also take note that, effective immediately, new electoral boundaries have come into effect, per the 2016-2017 Alberta Boundaries Commission. To learn more about the new boundaries, please visit <https://www.elections.ab.ca/resources/2019-boundary-maps/>.

Candidate Information:

You can also find information about your local returning office, the candidates running in your electoral division, and more, by visiting <https://www.elections.ab.ca/current-election-information/>.

We hope that the information provided in this letter will help you engage your community membership and assist them, as needed, in getting out to vote. Should you require any additional assistance, or have questions that are not answered in this correspondence, please do not hesitate to contact us by email at vote@elections.ab.ca or by phone 1-877-422-VOTE (8683).

Thank you for your attention and support with this election!

Best regards,
